HELLER FUND GRANTS FOR SUMMER TRAVEL

(1) Students in graduate programs in Classics or Ancient History and Mediterranean Archaeology with an emphasis on Classical studies may apply for a grant from the Heller Fund to help cover the costs of overseas travel in the summer.

(2) The purpose of summer travel shall be to pursue an academically justified and practical program of self-enrichment and education either through the travel itself, or through a study project, or both.

(3) The Heller Grant is intended to help graduate students travel for enrichment, study in academic institutions, participate in excavations or other field work, pursue individual research projects, etc.; but not to cover the full cost of such projects. Since the Department offers only supplemental assistance, applicants are urged to seek financial aid from other sources, such as the Graduate Division, foundations, etc.

(4) Students in Classics shall receive priority consideration over students in AHMA.

(5) Students who have not traveled to Classical Lands and/or pursued study projects abroad shall receive priority consideration over students who have done such travel and/or study.

(6) The amount of each grant will depend on the funds available from Heller resources, and on the number of grants awarded.

(7) To apply, submit the form on the reverse along with a single page containing (a) a description of your overall plan for travel, including a fairly detailed itinerary if enrichment travel is included, (b) an explanation of what role that travel will play in your education as a graduate student, (c) an estimate of your travel costs, and (d) a summary listing of previous travel in classical lands and the sources of financial support.

(8) Application should be made to the Heller Committee and submitted to the Chair of the Heller Ctee (Trevor Murphy) by April 2nd. Awards will be announced by April 12th.

(9) Students must follow University policies regarding the purchasing of travel tickets using Heller funds. If you have EFT, your Heller summer travel award will be deposited directly into your bank account. If you do not have EFT you will receive a notification via email to let you know that your check is waiting for you at the Cashier’s Office in University Hall (at Oxford and University Ave.)

(10) Heller grant recipients are required to submit a brief report describing the project and giving an account of how the funds were used, within three months of the end of the travel or project.
